Rahi atutaku hari mo koutou e u ana ki nga whakahaū a te Atua, koia nei te mauri oho, te mauri tau o nga mea katoa. Kia whakapaingia tona ingoa i nga wa katoa.

E mapu kau ana e o te hunga ka wheturangitia, koutou kua uhia ki te kakahu taratara, ki te kakahu pekepeke. E nga pukenga, e nga Wananga o te motu haere koutou, moe mai i roto i te Ariki.

Karanga te ra e whakanui ai te huihuinga pukenga hakinakina Māori, tenei tatou ka noho whakamiharo ki nga mahi kua oti i tena pito, i tena pito. Topu mai, na te tangata te mahi whakahirahira, no te iwi Māori te kororia, no Aotearoa te maringa nui.

Over the past year we have seen Māori Olympiads, World Cup participants and other sports people that have shown that Māori can sit at the top of the sporting world.

Tonight we have an opportunity to celebrate them. These people have trained to become our foremost Māori sports heroes and heroines from across the length and breadth of the country. Their personal sporting distinction gives their cousins from around the motu a sense of pride. Ka mau te wehi!

I offer my sincere congratulations to all who have been nominated, for you are the role models of the future generations of Māori sporting leaders.

I conclude with the remarks of 'Rangawhenua' to wish you well on your pursuit of sporting excellence.

"Kia hora te marino, kia whakapapa pounamu te moana, kia tere te karohirohi i mua i a koe"

Paimarire

Hon Dr Pita Sharples

Minister of Māori Affairs

E rau rangatira mā, e ngā hau whā, otirā e ngā hau tupua o te ao hākinakina tēnā rā koutou katoa.

He hōnore nui tēnei mōku ki te tuku mihi maioha ki tēnā, ki tēnā o koutou e hāpai tonu ana i te mana o te Māori ki te ao hākinakina whānuī.

For nearly two decades, Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa Incorporated has celebrated Māori sportspeople and leaders. I am very proud to share an association with this organisation since its inception; first as an original committee member and also as a Trustee. I am humbled that one of the first 'official' duties I have as Minister of Māori Affairs is to provide these words of support for this programme.

Each year, the annual Māori Sports Awards uplifts and celebrates Māori performance sports.

Through recognition, these awards reward the commitment and dedication of players, coaches, referees and umpires, administrators and our emerging elite Māori sportspeople.

Even a quick glance of the past nominees and winners of these awards as well as of the inductees of Te Whare Mātāpuna o Te Ao Māori reveals how Māori sporting success is synonymous with New Zealand's national and international sporting success.

It used to be that when people talked about Māori and sport, the conversation tended to focus on rugby, league, and netball. In the 2008 Māori Sports Awards, while these codes are represented, they share the stage with softball, tennis, motorsport, rowing, golf, swimming, cricket and powerlifting.

Through these awards, we also celebrate body boarding, shearing and wool-handling as well as wood chopping and uniquely Māori events such as waka ama.

For some 35 years, I have been involved with Te Roopu Manutaki Māori Cultural Group and as the Tumu Whakarae of the National School of Māori Weaponry (Te Runanga Tu Taua Mau Taiaha o Aotearoa) for the last 25 years.

While some may not consider these as traditional sports, both embody practices and qualities of top performance sports: total physical discipline, fitness, coordination, commitment to the team effort and bodily strength.

Each year, the Māori Sports Awards are a great occasion to celebrate our winners and our champions. They also present the perfect opportunity to celebrate the “X”-factor of indigenous sport and our distinctive talents as tangata whenua - our commitment to kotahitanga, our pride in being Māori, and our preparedness to build on the strengths of our whakapapa to share our distinctive presence for all to enjoy.

Just as we share the haka; a tradition proudly carried by the All Blacks for more than a century. Now, nearly every sporting code has incorporated this uniquely Māori ritual at international fixtures. Supporters too, perform the haka when moved to display their support and encouragement to our players and sportspeople.

Māori make our mark as successful sportspeople but also by virtue of who we are as a people.

He taonga tō tātou tuakiritanga, he taonga a koutou pukenga hākinakina – whakakotahi kia toitū ai te Māori.

Mayor of Rotorua

As Mayor of Rotorua, it gives me great pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all sports men and women and supporters attending the 2008 Māori Sports Awards.

Sport plays an integral part in the lives of many New Zealanders and we are delighted to host these Awards in Rotorua for the second year in a row. We are thrilled to have the opportunity to showcase our city and the attractions we are famous for to those of you travelling from outside our District.

Please take time to enjoy the many outdoor activities, from the picturesque walkways, parks and gardens in our district, to the adrenalin rush of lugging, zorbing and bungying. Or maybe relax with a massage and a soak in a thermal hot pool.

Congratulations to the organisers of the 2008 Māori Sports Awards. I know you have put in a lot of time and effort to ensure the success of these Awards and that it is memorable for all who attend. To all sports men and women who are nominated for an award, good luck and best wishes.

Welcome to Rotorua where I am sure you will "Feel the Spirit" – Manaakitanga.

REALISING MĀORI POTENTIAL

Leith Comer

Chief Executive Te Puni Kōkiri

Te Puni Kōkiri's strategic outcome is Māori succeeding as Māori. We strive for Māori to enjoy a better quality of life, achieving a sustainable level of success as individuals, and in organisations and collectives.

Most importantly, we recognise the importance of Māori achieving success on their own terms, and in that, celebrating what it means to be Māori.

We are the principal advisor on Crown-Māori relationships, and give effect to this through a range of functional areas, including investing in national and local initiatives.

The annual Māori Sports Awards epitomise Māori achievement and success. Congratulations to Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa Incorporated for your many years of commitment to celebrating Māori sports achievement. We all know that significant potential exists among Māori and nowhere is that more obvious than in the sports arena. For 18 years, you have played a crucial role in growing Māori sporting success.

Te Puni Kōkiri's role is to assist in unlocking and realising Māori potential. That is why we are proud to support Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa Incorporated so that we can all honour Māori sporting achievements, foster young Māori talent through the provision of sport and educational scholarships, and promote and encourage Māori athletes in the pursuit of excellence in their chosen codes.

Māori success is New Zealand's success.

Leith Comer, Chief Executive

Te Whanau O Waipareira Trust

The 1980s was a decade of big change instigated by those who we now consider to be our activist leaders. It was the beginning of Te Kohanga Reo, Treaty claims were in full swing, more Māori were going to universities than ever, and the idea of "by Māori, for Māori" being coined by many.

In West Auckland, there were over 50 pan-tribal organisations delivering education, sports, training and more to Māori. Yet, they had little control over the city's development and were stuck in a cycle of erratic funding with no real co-ordination of resources and skills. They were all dealing with problems created by rapid urbanisation. Decades of high unemployment, poor housing, low education and more were continuing to seriously undermine the potential of urban Māori.

However, Government funders did not favour small and loose groupings. A structure was needed to influence development and the groups came together to form Te Whanau o Waipareira Trust in 1984.

Ki-o-Rahi Akotanga Iho

Kerikeri High School has a student cultural sports group called 'Ki-o-Rahi Akotanga Iho' led by Harko Brown, they are seen as ambassadors of the traditional Māori Ball sport with emphasis on personal growth, mutual support, leadership development, inclusiveness and enjoyment.

The group mentors and teaches traditional Māori games to students from other secondary schools (eg. recently 650 students at Rangitoto College), people at community festivals (eg the 'Big Free' anti-drug festival), children in primary school (eg Te Kura Kaupapa Māori o Kaikohe) and has recently visited Cassino and Cervia/Ravenna in Italy to play ki-o-rahi and manu tukutuku with Italians who have kept the games alive that they were taught by the 28th Māori Battalion in WW2. In the past 12 months they have mentored/taught traditional Māori games and performed kapa haka at 10 different locations to very large audiences and participants.

Co-hosted at Te Kura o Te Whakarewarewa, supported by Te Papa Taakaro o Te Arawa and Te Kura Kaupapa Maori a rohe o Mangere on Thursday 6 November.

Following the vision of the late Albie Pryor, the Tamariki Sport & Cultural Day began in 1999 on the turf of our founder's many rugby battles - Eden Park.

The purpose of the Tamariki Sport & Cultural Day is to provide tamariki from kura kaupapa (Māori immersion schools) and bilingual units from mainstream schools with an opportunity to take part in sport - including the revival of traditional Māori sports - and cultural activities.

The event provides a link to elite Māori sport role models and the positive contribution they are making for ngā tamariki and the wider community.

The Tamariki Sport & Cultural Day also promotes and fosters a sense of mana (prestige), ihi (inspiration) and wehi (awe) to nga tamariki.
