(Mackie) 1939-2014 Ngāti Tūwharetoa, Ngāti Kahungunu Māori Sports Hall of Fame inductee - Te Whare Matapuna o te Ao Maori 2004

Mackie passed away 21 May this year. This outstanding sportsman, will be remembered not only for his rugby dexterity as one of our greatest All Black, Maori All Black and Auckland 1st five eights, but equally as a champion in tennis, bowls, golf, boxing and an apprentice jockey.

E Te Rangatira, haere e te opango te toro mai nga ringaringa o o tatou tipuna ki te awhi i a koe. No reira haere, haere atu ra.

Eru Te Rikawa Dallas THOMPSON Ngāti Mahanga, Te Kawerau ā Maki

Sadly, Eru passed away 4 November. A strong advocate of our kaupapa and kaupapa taakaro across the motu, Eru lead many powhiri as kaumatua of the Mana Whenua Iwi at the awards powhiri, when hosted at Manukau.

Eru assisted our CEO in many other areas of sport, carrying out the correct rituals to open tennis courts. rugby fields and powhiri for visiting international sports teams. Counties Manukau Sports Foundation will also miss the wisdom and knowledge he gave at their sports awards.

E te rangatira o nga paepaetapu o Tamaki Makaurau me Tainui kei te toro mai nga ringaringa o o tatou tipuna ki te awhi i a koe. Noho reira haere, haere atu ra ki to okiokinga roa.

Hon Te Ghuroa Havell

E ngā iwi, e ngā mana, e ngā reo, e ngā karangatanga o te motu, tēnā koutou katoa.

The Māori Sports Awards is a time to celebrate our sporting elite, our upcoming athletes and the unsung heroes that work tirelessly in the background.

I congratulate all the individuals and teams that have been selected as finalists. You make us and your whānau immensely proud with your achievements and commitment to your sporting codes. While it is a cliché to say so, you are all winners tonight for your outstanding contributions to sports and te ao Māori.

As the Minister for Māori Development and the Minister for Whānau Ora, I am always pleased to see events like this that acknowledge excellence and promote healthy lifestyles. I wish to acknowledge the organisers of the Māori Sports Awards for your ongoing commitment to this event and I wish all the athletes and sports administrators all the best with your future endeavours.

"E nga iwi o nga hau e wha, nau mai ra ki te tautoko i te kaupapa e whakanui nei i nga toa o te mahi hakinakina"

On behalf of the Trust I welcome you here tonight to the 24th annual National Maori Sports Awards .While we recognise and celebrate the achievements, dedication, determination, motivation and perseverance of our Maori sporting people in reaching the highest levels of their chosen sports we also mourn the sad loss during the past year of an esteemed Trust team member and kaumatua Henare Pryor, Moe mai ra e te Rangatira. Ma matou nga morehu e pupuri kia mau te kaupapa o te taonga kua tukua mai e koutou ma kua wehea atu.

I acknowledge our sponsors for their loyalty and commitment to making this evening possible and my fellow Board of Trustees, the CEO and his team, for their on-going efforts in making the Maori Sports Awards one of New Zealand's premier events.

Kati ka nui taku hari me te koa ki te kaupapa o te po, tena koutou katoa.

On behalf of Watson & Son and Manukatoa, our Maori Charitable Trust, we are proud to support Te Toihuarewa, the award for the most outstanding Disabled Maori Sports Person of 2014. The term Te Toi-huarewa is found in the famous Kahungunu waiata 'Pinepine te Kura' Te Toi-huarewa is the ancient vine that enabled Tane to climb to the uppermost of the heavens to receive the most powerful of all gifts - the power of the mind. Manuka Honey is our life-line, with its healing properties it is a Maori taonga, a valued treasure of Aotearoa, our land.

Proud supporter of the 2014 Maori Sports Awards.

Mighty River Power is one of New Zealand's largest electricity companies – our core business is based on reliable, low fuel-cost electricity generation complemented by sales to homes and businesses.

MORE THAN 95% of our electricity production is from renewable sources.

Harnessing New Zealand's indigenous resources sustainably to generate renewable electricity has provided opportunities for economic participation and partnership within our communities, based on shared values and a focus on the long-term. In every area of our business we respect the kaitiakitanga (guardianship) approach of our partners in the local communities and do our share in meeting those responsibilities. Our joint development approach with Maori land trusts is founded on the principles of highly valued, long-term partnerships that continue to deliver significant mutual benefits.

We wish all the nominees every success at the awards event and in their chosen sport.
