I am pleased to report that the two important events conducted by the Trust – The Trillian Trust Maori Sports Awards function 2015 held at Turangawaewae Marae and the Tamariki Sports and Cultural Day held again in Auckland – were enjoyed by all participants and that all of our stakeholders needs and requirements were effectively dealt with. I am further pleased to report that our finances are under control and close scrutiny and that the administration of the Trust is being conducted in a business-like manner.

For this success heartfelt thanks must go to Dick and Desrae for enabling us to continue to maintain and develop the vision of our founder. Neither should we overlook the major backup that Dick receives from Alan Chester, our Financial Controller, and the amount of time and effort he has put into ensuring that our financial accounts are in order. Many thanks for your efforts, Alan.

There have been a number of changes in the make-up of the Board. We have seen the departure of Ron Karaitiana and Yvonne O'Brien and we welcome Hone Hauraki, Hineamaru Ropati and Rangi Whakaruru. This provides continuity and stability and augurs well for the future. We have to continually review our membership though to ensure that people who can make a major contribution are given the opportunity to join our team on the Board.

To our two departing trustees Ron Karaitiana and Yvonne O'Brien , nga mihi tino nui ki a korua mo ta korua awahi i te kaupapa o Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa.

I wish to thank all of my fellow Board members for the time and effort you have put into the governance of the Trust's activities and to the CEO and his team for your commitment and dedication to the kaupapa of the Trust.

Nga mihi tino nui ki a koutou katoa.

25 YEARS OF ACKNOWLEDGING MAORI SPORTING SUCCESS BY WAY OF AN ANNUAL AWARDS EVENT!

It does not seem that long ago that the late albie pryor hosted the very first awards at Turangawaewae marae in 1991 the home of our late patron – Te Arikinui Dame Te Atairangikaahu.

This year the trust returned to Turangawaewae marae to celebrate 25 years of the Maori Sports Awards "Te Whakanuitanga ō te 25 Tau".

On behalf of the trustees and trust operations, I must acknowledge our patron, Kiingi Tuheitia for the mana and wairua he impresses on us ably assisted by his personal secretary Rangi Whakaruru.

Also in thanking our sponsors over the past 25 years for their loyal support, this anniversary year was highlighted by the special 25 year awards presented to Michael Campbell and Lisa Carrington.

Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa Charitable Trust looks forward to the 2016 Rio Olympic Games and the next 25 years where we can celebrate our 50th anniversary in 2040.

In closing, I thank in a big way the support of our trustees, in particular Ngā Kaihautū Sir Tamati Reedy and Pine Harrison, part time staff, Desrae and Michelle and financial advisor Mr Alan Chester.

Te Tama-ā-Tānenuiārangi

Senior Māori Sportsman

Te Tama-ā-Tānenuiārangi

Tāne, the greatest son of Ranginui and Papatuanuku. Tane the bringer of daylight, the fountain of life to all living things, Tane the beginning, Tane the source of knowledge, Tane who discovered Te Ira Tangata and created the ongoing generations of mankind. It was Tane also who committed the first sin and right until this time has caused the imbalance between man and woman.

The greatest sportsman has to be called the Son of Tane, it is that person who manifests excellence in the male being.

Hineahuone

Senior Māori Sportswoman

Hineahuone

When Tane began life for all living thing he searched in vain for a way to perpetuate life in his form. He was sent by the spiritual beings to a place called Kurawaka where the soil was red and fertile. From Papatuanuku's loins he fashioned in the earth the form of a woman and he breathed life into her – she was first human being – she was Hineahuone, Hine who comes from the Earth. Tane mated with her and begat Hinetitama. Hineahuone is acknowledged as the ultimate human eponymous ancestor for all genealogies, she is the spring of humankind or the ultimate woman.

It is for this reason that the Māori Sportswoman should be named in the spirit of an illustrious beginning, she is truly ultimate.

Te Tama-ā-Ranginui

Ranginui was the Sky Father who was separated from the Earth Mother – Papatuanuku by Tane who was to be their greatest son. Ranginui symbolises the male line and even Tane was later to be renamed great Tane of Rangi. Ranginui is the Maori symbol for the beginning and together with Papatuanuku they are the Maori genesis. Even today Papatuanuku is acknowledged on all occasions when Maori gather, she is the mother, she fees life into all living things, plant and animal, there is no beginning beyond the Earth Mother.

It is appropriate that the junior sportspersons both boy and girl should carry of Ranginui and Papatuanuku. They are the seeds from which men and women grow.

Te Wānanga o Aotearoa

Te Tamahine-ā-Papatuānuku

Junior Māori Sportswoman

Te Tamāhine-ā- Papatuānuku

It is appropriate that the junior sportswomen should carry the strengths of Papatuānuku. Even today Papatuānuku is acknowledged on all occasions when Māori gather. They are the seeds from which men and women grow.

Ranginui was the Sky Father who was separated from the Earth Mother – Papatuanuku by Tane who was to be their greatest son. ## Māori Sports Coach

Te Maru ō Tūmatauenga

Tumatauenga, Māori God of War, son of Ranginui and Papatuanuku all things relating to battle, courage, confrontation, anger and struggle came within the realms of Tumatauenga. The Maori Battalion was named after Tumatauenga – Te Hokowhitu a Tu.

It is the coach who is in the direct firing line in all sports, the coach decides the tactics, prepares the team and trains in the arm of combat. The coach is the general and accordingly acts within the authority of Tumatauenga. (Te Maru o Tumatauenga)

Ngā Ika a Whiro

When Tāne ascended up to the heavens to seek “Ngā Kete o te Wananga” (the baskets of knowledge), his older brother Whiro was furious; he considered he had more right to the task than Tāne. So Whiro sent plagues of insects, reptiles and birds to attack Tāne, which complicated his task; but with the assistance of Tawhiri-mātea (god of the winds), he was able to continue until he arrived at the summit of the heavens. On his return expedition, Whiro and his plague again attacked Tāne; when he finally reached earth, Whiro insisted that he should be the custodian of the treasures.

Tāne with his supporters rejected his demands so Whiro was eventually exiled to the underworld where he still dwells, and continually endeavors to wreak havoc for the gods and mankind.

Te Toihuarewa

Māori Sports Person with a Disability

Te Toi Huarewa

It was Toi himself (the supreme being) who sent forth his sacred messengers Apa Whatukura from Te Toi a Rangi the uppermost heaven to see who could climb the heavens in search of knowledge. Both Whiro and Tane responded to the challenge, but only Tane was successful. The reason that Tane was successful was that he chose to climb by the routes Te Toi Huarewa and Te Aratiatia, accordingly, he reached Tikitiki o Rangi and was given "Nga Kete o te Wananga" the sacred baskets of knowledge and the sacred stones of education.

The name Te Toi Huarewa has been chosen for the award to sportsperson with a disability. In order to achieve success Te Toi Huarewa signifies whanau support, diligence and dedication. Furthermore, the prize at the end of this pathway is knowledge, understanding and great achievement.

Te Aratiatia

Māori Umpire/Referee

Te Aratiatia

Overcoming all odds as Tāne did with his elder brother Whiro, to ascend the heavens by way of Te Toi Huarewa and Te Aratiatia; to acquire "Nga Kete o te Wananga" and the sacred stones of education.

Therefore Te Aratiatia denotes the extremely unique battles that Umpires and referees have to tolerate with players in a chosen sport. They have to be vigilant within the decisions they make and passionate in the way they deliver those decisions.

Māui Tikitiki-ā-Taranga

Māori Sports Administrator

Māui Tikitiki-ā-Taranga

Maui was the youngest child of Hine Taranga hence the name Maui top knot of Taranga. Maui was renowned for many extraordinary supernatural deeds, he brought fire to mankind from Mahuika's fingernails, he fished up the North Island using the Matika- special fishhook made from the jawbone of his grandmother Murirangawhenua, Maui slowed down the sun to give us a 24 hour day, Maui was magical and mysterious. Maui was both brave and frivolous, Maui was a gambler, he took on all odds.

It is appropriate therefore that the trophy of Maui is awarded to the Sports Administrator since the administrator has to do battle on all fronts, requires a repertoire of talent and devices in order to be successful.
