Trillian Trust Māori Sports Awards

Taumata & Board of Trustees

HM Kiingi Tuheitia Potatau Te Wherowhero VII Patron

Sir Tamati Reedy KNZN Kaumātua

Margaret Hihi кzом

Waka Nathan

The year of 2017 was another year of challenges for the Trillian Trust Te Tohu Taakaro o Aotearoa entity and , in particular for our Trust manager Dick Garratt and his good wife , Desrae. "Nga mihi aroha ki a korua ko to hoa rangatira a Desrae, Dick". Plaudits are also due to our Financial Controller, Alan Chester, who has provided the Trust and Dick Garratt with valued advice that has ensured that we always deliver on our commitments to our stakeholders.

Despite all of these challenges the celebration event staged at the end of the year still managed to equal the success and excitement of those events held in the past. The list of Maori Sporting Achievers continues to grow and those receiving scholarships include a list of young Maori sporting talent that augurs well for the future. The contribution of Maori Television and the professionalism of its presenters and support staff meant that the event was shared by those who had the privilege of attending, with the general public. It meant that the images of our successful sporting men and women reached many whanau who, hopefully, would be inspired by their achievements.

Lisa Carrington - World & Olympic Canoe champion, Rieko & Akira Ioane - All Blacks, Shannon McIlroy - World Bowls champion, Junior sportsman Lewis Clareburt - Bronze at the Commonwealth Games, World Champion awardee - Sam Gaze - Gold at the Commonwealth Games, Portia Woodman & Sarah Goss World Sevens & Commonwealth Games Gold medalists.

The Trustees owe a debt of gratitude to all of our sponsors, a number of whom have been supporters of our Trust since day one. We are exceedingly grateful for your continued support. To my fellow Board members it is indeed a privilege working alongside you to ensure that the vision of the founders of our Trust "The Celebration of Maori Excellence in Sport" is achieved.

Nga mihi tino nui ki a koutou katoa.

E ngā mana, e ngā reo, e ngā karangatanga maha, tēnā koutou.

Firstly, it is very encouraging to observe the progress of our Patron's health – HM Kiingi Tuheitia Potatau Te Wherowhero VII and his commitment in attending the awards with his heavy calendar of commitments.

The Trust operations is also very fortunate to have esteemed Kaumatua at its helm led by Sir Tamati Reedy KNZM, Mr Pine Harrison, with Sir Tamati receiving committed support from Lady Tilly Reedy.

That support is equalled to what I receive from my wife Desrae and the whanau from Ngai Tuhoe.

To all those unsung heroes that helped make the night a success – Nga mihi, tino nui ki a Koutou.

The Trust Looks forward to catching up with you all in December 2018.

Noho ora mai koutou i roto i ngā manaakitanga katoa

Te Tama-ā-Tānenuiārangi

NEW ZEALAND

Senior Māori Sportsman

Te Tama-ā-Tanenuiārangi

Tane, the greatest son of Ranginui and Papatuanuku. Tane the bringer of daylight, the fountain of life to all living things, Tane the beginning, Tane the source of knowledge, Tane who discovered Te Ira Tangata and created the ongoing generations of mankind. It was Tane also who committed the first sin and right until this time has caused the imbalance between man and woman.

The greatest sportsman has to be called the Son of Tane, it is that person who manifests excellence in the male being.

Rieko IOANE RUGBY Te Whānau a Apanui, Ngāpuhi Presented by Carl Carrington

Hineahuone

Senior Māori Sportswoman

Hineahuone

When Tane began life for all living thing he searched in vain for a way to perpetuate life in his form. He was sent by the spiritual beings to a place called Kurawaka where the soil was red and fertile. From Papatuanuku's loins he fashioned in the earth the form of a woman and he breathed life into her – she was first human being – she was Hineahuone, Hine who comes from the Earth. Tane mated with her and begat Hinetitama. Hineahuone is acknowledged as the ultimate human eponymous ancestor for all genealogies, she is the spring of humankind or the ultimate

It is for this reason that the Māori Sportswoman should be named in the spirit of an illustrious beginning, she is truly ultimate.

Ngāpuhi Presented by Matt Crockett

Mercury Junior Māori Sportsman

Te Tama-ā-Ranginui

Ranginui was the Sky Father who was separated from the Earth Mother – Papatuanuku by Tane who was to be their greatest son. Ranginui symbolises the male line and even Tane was later to be renamed great Tane of Rangi. Ranginui is the Maori symbol for the beginning and together with Papatuanuku they are the Maori genesis. Even today Papatuanuku is acknowledged on all occasions when Maori gather, she is the mother, she fees life into all living things, plant and animal, there is no beginning beyond the Earth Mother.

It is appropriate that the junior sportspersons both boy and girl should carry of Ranginui and Papatuanuku. They are the seeds from which men and women grow.

Lewis CLAREBURT SWIMMING Waikato Presented by Phil Gibson

Te Tamahine-ā-Papatuānuku

Junior Māori Sportswoman

Te Tamāhine-ā- Papatūānuku

It is appropriate that the junior sportswomen should carry the strengths of Papatūānuku. Even today Papatūānuku is acknowledged on all occasions when Māori gather. They are the seeds from which men and women grow.

Ranginui was the Sky Father who was separated from the Earth Mother – Papatuanuku by Tane who was to be their greatest son. Ranginui symbolises the male line and even Tane was later to be renamed great Tane of Rangi. Ranginui is the Maori symbol for the beginning and together with Papatuanuku they are the Maori genesis. Te Maru ō Tūmatauenga

Māori Sports Coach

Te Maru ō Tūmatauenga

Tumatauenga, Māori God of War, son of Ranginui and Papatuanuku all things relating to battle, courage, confrontation, anger and struggle came within the realms of Tumatauenga. The Maori Battalion was named after Tumatauenga

It is the coach who is in the direct firing line in all sports, the coach decides the tactics, prepares the team and trains in the arm of combat. The coach is the general and accordingly acts within the authority of Tumatauenga. (Te Maru o Tumatauenga)

Ngā lki ā Whiro

Māori Sports Team

Ngā Ika a Whiro

When Tāne ascended up to the heavens to seek "Ngā Kete o te Wananga" (the baskets of knowledge), his older brother Whiro was furious; he considered he had more right to the task than Tāne. So Whiro sent plagues of insects, reptiles and birds to attack Tāne, which complicated his task; but with the assistance of Tawhiri-mātea (god of the winds), he was able to continue until he arrived at the summit of the heavens. On his return expedition, Whiro and his plague again attacked Tāne; when he finally reached earth, Whiro insisted that he should be the custodian of the treasures.

Tane with his supporters rejected his demands so Whiro was eventually exiled to the underworld where he still dwells, and continually endeavors to wreak havoc for the gods and mankind.

Te Toihuarewa

Māori Sports Person with a Disability

Te Toi Huarewa

It was Toi himself (the supreme being) who sent forth his sacred messengers Apa Whatukura from Te Toi a Rangi the uppermost heaven to see who could climb the heavens in search of knowledge. Both Whiro and Tane responded to the challenge, but only Tane was successful. The reason that Tane was successful was that he chose to climb by the routes Te Toi Huarewa and Te Aratiatia, accordingly, he reached Tikitiki o Rangi and was given "Nga Kete o te Wananga" the sacred baskets of knowledge and the sacred stones of education.

The name Te Toi Huarewa has been chosen for the award to sportsperson with a disability. In order to achieve success Te Toi Huarewa signifies whanau support, diligence and dedication. Furthermore, the prize at the end of this pathway is knowledge, understanding and great achievement.

Holly ROBINSON PARA-ATHLETICS Ngāi Tahu Presented by Agnes Naera

Te Aratiatia

Māori Umpire/Referee

Te Aratiatia

Overcoming all odds as Tane did with his elder brother Whiro, to ascend the heavens by way of Te Toi Huarewa and Te Aratiatia; to acquire "Ngā Kete o te Wananga" and the sacred stones of education.

Therefore Te Aratiatia denotes the extremely unique battles that Umpires and referees have to tolerate with players in a chosen sport. They have to be vigilant within the decisions they make and passionate in the way they deliver those decisions.

Māui Tikitiki-ā-Taranga

Māori Sports Administrator

Māui Tikitiki-ā-Taranga

Maui was the youngest child of Hine Taranga hence the name Maui top knot of Taranga. Maui was renowned for many extraordinary supernatural deeds, he brought fire to mankind from Mahuika's fingernails, he fished up the North Island using the Matika-special fishhook made from the jawbone of his grandmother Murirangawhenua, Maui slowed down the sun to give us a 24 hour day, Maui was magical and mysterious. Maui was both brave and frivolous, Maui was a gambler, he took on all odds.

It is appropriate therefore that the trophy of Maui is awarded to the Sports Administrator since the administrator has to do battle on all fronts, requires a repertoire of talent and devices in order to be successful.
